

Marianne Manning
622 Hemlock
Juneau, Alaska 99801
Home: 463-3431 Cell: 209-8194 email: mariannemanning@gmail.com

Artist/Art Teacher

Working Artist who specializes in oil painting, Alaskan beaded moccasins, and stain glass. Resourceful and imaginative teaching professional highly educated in a wide array of artistic mediums. She has taught: ceramics, drawing, painting, Alaska Native Design, printmaking, and crafts.

Areas of Expertise

Art – Artistic Instruction – Student Motivation – Interactive Learning Instruction – Thematic Units – Parent/Family involvement.

Education and Credentials

UAS	Elementary Education	BA of Arts in Education
UAF	Special Education	Special Education Endorsement
UAS	Art	Art Endorsement

Alaska Teaching Certification, current

Exhibits

The Rookery Café	Faces -2012
The Canvas	Children and Mermaids - 2011

Upcoming Exhibits

City Museum	2013 – People and Critters of Juneau
The Canvas	2013 - Landscapes

Workshops/Specialty Classes

Zhaoming Wu, Washington	Oil Painting	2012
Ron Ranson , Oregon	Watercolor	2011
Evelyn Boren, Mexico	Watercolor	2011
Hui Han Lui, California	Oil Painting	2011
Daniel Greene, New York	Portrait Artist	2009

Local Workshops/Specialty Classes taken at UAS and The Canvas

Ravenstail weaving, chilkat weaving, silver carving, wood carving, drawing, painting, stained glass, ceramics, printmaking, mosaic, silk painting, and basketry.

Grants/Awards/Affiliations

Sally Mae Education Award
Rasmussen Education Grant
Portrait Society of America

Profession Experience

Juneau School District
Teacher and Artist

Taught elementary students for eight years. Taught high school art for seven years.
2009-present, working as a fine artist