

Gabrielle Vance

(907) 321-1515 gabrielletherese@gmail.com

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE AND EDUCATION

University of Alaska Museum of the North, Fairbanks, Alaska

Museum Educator/Outreach Specialist January 2014-present
- Develop and deliver science, culture, and art family programs

Curatorial Assistant September 2014-March 2015
- Assisted with Fine Arts collection management, including data digitization

Instructor, Colors of Nature (NSF) June-July 2013-2016
- Taught science and art summer academies for middle school girls

Instructor, Denali Elementary After School Program January-May 2014
- Created hands-on STEAM lessons for elementary students

University of Alaska Fairbanks, Fairbanks, Alaska
Master of Science, Geology December 2013

Research Assistant, Eyes on the Arctic (NASA) August-December 2013
- Used storytelling to educate students in Bethel and Kotzebue about climate change

Teaching Fellow, Changing Alaska Science Education (NSF) June 2012-June 2013
- Engaged elementary students in inquiry-based science integrated with art

Teaching Assistant, Department of Geology and Geophysics August 2011-May 2012
- Taught laboratory sections of introductory and structural geology

Whitman College, Walla Walla, Washington
Bachelor of Arts, Geology with Honors May 2011
- Graduated Magna Cum Laude

Teaching Assistant, Geology Department April 2010-May 2011
- Taught laboratory section of Geologic History of the Pacific Northwest

AWARDS

Golden Key International Honour Society 2013
Highly Rated Teaching Assistant 2011, 2012
Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi 2011
Albert Ripley Leeds Prize for Excellence in Geology 2011
National Merit Scholar, UA Scholar, Walter P. Brattain Merit Scholarship 2007
National Outdoor Leadership School Honors Graduate 2005